

Photo Credit: Vincent Martin

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI BERGAMO

Dipartimento
di Lettere, Filosofia, Comunicazione

Zoonoses

Multi-species transmission of pathogens and pandemic preparedness

13-14 October 2023 - via Pignolo 123

FRIDAY 13 OCTOBER 2023

Room 6

9.45 - Opening remarks

Alfredo Paternoster, Chair of the Department of Letters, Philosophy, Communication, University of Bergamo

Frédéric Keck (CNRS, Paris) and Domenico Perrotta (University of Bergamo)

10.30-13.30 - Anthropology and history of zoonoses

Chair: Mauro Van Aken (University of Milano Bicocca)

Christos Lynteris (University of St Andrews), Four transformations of framing plague as a zoonotic disease, 1840-1940

Matheus Alves Duarte Da Silva (University of St Andrews), Rat-labs, a global network of epidemiological surveillance avant la lettre (1894-1945)

Emmanuelle Roth (Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich), The 'truth about Ebola': Knowing and doing zoonosis in post-outbreak Guinea

Hannah Brown (University of Durham), Ebola across borders: Preparedness in Kenya during the 2022-3 EVD outbreak in Uganda

James Fairhead (University of Sussex), The potential importance of sociability and more-than-human sociability in the development of viral immunity (online)

13.30-15.30 Lunch break

15.30-18.30 - Ethnography of multi-species transmission of pathogens and sociology of risks

Chair: Davide Caselli (University of Bergamo)

Roberta Raffaetà and Lucilla Barchetta (Ca' Foscari University of Venice), One Health and digital data platforms

Nadia Breda (University of Firenze), Disentangling relations with a breadth of animism. Among Mongolian Pastoralists and Italian Wetland Gatherers

Luigi Pellizoni (Scuola Normale Superiore, Firenze), The time of emergency. On the governmental logic of preparedness (online)

Ludek Broz (Institute of Ethnology of the Czech Academy of Sciences), Zoonotic Implications of non-zoonotic animal diseases - the case of African Swine Fever (online)

Frédéric Keck (CNRS Paris), How avian influenza became endemic: History and anthropology of a global mobilization

SATURDAY 14 OCTOBER 2023

Room 1

10.30-12.30 The governance of pandemic preparedness and "One Health" approaches

Chair: Domenico Perrotta (University of Bergamo)

Ilaria Capua (Johns Hopkins SAIS Europe), From One Health to Circular Health: the legacy of Covid 19 (online)

Vincent Martin (FAO Roma), From bird flu in China to Ebola in Guinea: itineraries of One Health and international diplomacy (online)

Nicoletta Dentico (Health Justice Programme, Society for International Development), The reluctance to implement the COVID-19 lessons in international post-pandemic policymaking (online)

Info

domenico.perrotta@unibg.it